

BIG REDUCTION IN LADIES' Suits Coats Capes Skirts

Yes, down go prices on a big lot of Bischof Suits, Coats and Capes. The manufacturer sold them tons at big reduction so we can sell you a $50 or $60 coat or suit for say $25, or a $25 or $30 cape for $10 or $12. These bargains will be at this store every day for a time, but we cannot guarantee how long they'll be here before some one else sees them. The first that comes will be the first served.

LIVINGSTON

J. T. O'Mary has sold his property on Main Street to John Cockrell. Price paid $800. Mr. O'Mary will move his family to Louisville. — D. B. Rambo is visiting relatives at Stanford for a few days. — Mrs. Georgia McClure has returned from Crab Orchard. She will teach school at Preachersville this year. — Dr. Charley Sowder, of Indianapolis, Ind., has returned home after a visit with his aunt Mrs. Sue Mullins and other relatives. He has just landed from over seas. — Harvey Owens, of the Spiro neighborhood, was here between trains Monday. — The reunion at Level Green is over and those that missed it, missed a great time. One of the finest dinners that was ever set before a gathering was spread by the good people of old Level Green, who know how to please every one. We met lots of people we had not seen for years and there were some absent whom we learned had crossed over the river. We guess our next reunion will be over yonder, where our devoted teacher and part of the school have gone. — S. E. Pennington and daughter, Mrs. Cleo Griffin, were down from London Wednesday.

Mrs. Mattie Smith, of Winchester, was here between trains on her way to Brodhead to visit her mother, Mrs. James Owens. — Bernard Franklin passed through here a few days ago en route to Mt. Vernon from Lexington where he had been to visit his grandmother. — Prohibition is a certainty and Woman Suffrage will be also. They claim that the next step will be to cut tobacco out. One thing we want left is coffee and chewing gum and then we don't care how far they go. — Miss Ella Mae Blanford, of Louisville, is with home folks. — Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Stewart, of Cincinnati, who have been visiting relatives here, have returned home. — Livingston went over the top in the drive for the Salvation Army. We learn that it greatly exceeded its quota. As we have said before, when counting up the good, kind and generous folks of earth, always count Livingston in the bunch. — The little boy of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Owens has been quite sick but is better at present. — J. M. Foure and granddaughter, have returned from Knoxville, Tenn. — J. P. E. Drummond, of Knoxville, Tenn., is in Livingston this week. — Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Farman, of London, Ky., have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Andy Kincaid. — Swannie Price, of Level Green, is visiting his brother, Victor Price, and sister, Mrs. Fred Mullins. — We passed through our old friend's territory on our way to Level Green. We would have been glad to have met the Brodhead scribe, but it seemed fate had decreed otherwise. — W. M. (Mart) Hicks was coming home in his car he purchased in Mt. Vernon a few days ago, when he happened to see the speed limit sign which read, 15 miles per hour. Mart looked at his machine and then at the road and finally exclaimed: "Well, I don't know whether I can make it or not, but I am going to try it". — Mrs. George Smith has been with her mother, at Corbin, a few days this week. — G. D. Cook has returned from Somerset after a few days visit with his brother, Atty. James Cook. — One morning last week our friend C. L. Black, put on his Sunday clothes and went into the stable where his mules were. One of them thought a stranger had entered his stall, declared war and began using his heels. Black retreated from his place of danger the first opportunity and left. Black says he always attended to the mules in his work clothes and that they did not know who he was, as they had never bothered him before. — Miss Lillian Kathleen Hansel and little brother, Ralph, are visiting relatives in Mt. Vernon this week. — J. W. Baker, Jr. was in Richmond latter part of last week on business. — Mrs. W. H. Krueger, of Mt. Vernon, was here between trains Tuesday. — Mrs. J. W. Higgins has returned home after a few days visit with relatives at Mt. Vernon. — L. H. Rice was in Louisville latter part of last week. — Blackberries, of which there is a promise of a large crop, started off at 40c per gallon. — C. A. Blanford and E. B. Owens motored to Stanford Wednesday.

230 ACRES

Lincoln County Land at

AUCTION

Wednesday, July 16th
10 O'CLOCK

I will sell to the highest bidder the first class and highly productive farm of S. B. Sanders and W. S. Carrier, on the Rush Branch pike, near Hubble, 5 miles from Stanford, 6 miles from Lancaster, 7 miles from Danville.

The best location ever. Accessible to three markets. Farmers in this neighborhood always get a better price for stock and farm products by reason of the competition of buyers from three county seats. Make inquiry of these farmers and you will find this is true.

The land is very fertile, level, and rolling, long frontage on pike. Will be subdivided and "SOLD" in several tracts from 25 to 100 acres in each tract. Look it over before day of sale and we will "bunch" two or more tracts if you want to buy it that way.

Main dwelling, 5 rooms, porches, etc., one 3 room tenant house, one 5 room tenant house, 2 stock barns, 3 new tobacco barns.

35 acres in corn, 20 acres in tobacco,
40 acres in wheat stubble, 10 acres rye and grass,
20 acres orchard grass and clover, 110 acres Blue Grass.
Everlasting Water.

See this farm before you buy. In the BEST neighborhood in Kentucky. Close to school and churches. Most centrally located. Sale made to dissolve partnership.

What is the use of further description? "My goods are on the counter" Look them over. Attend this sale and get one of the bargains in land. This will be a money maker for some one.

Possession January 1, 1920.

Easy Terms.
